

Cancellation policy of the Barcelona Osteopathic Congress for the registered

All cancellation of the inscription to "Barcelona Osteopathic Congress 2019" must be informed in writing, sending an email to the academic secretary: info@advancedosteopathy.com.

No cancellations reported by any other means than the one described above will not be accepted.

The full amount of the registration will be returned in any case if the cancellation is due to *:

- (1) medical reasons that prevent the proper execution of the training and a doctor provides the relevant certification.
- (2) Extreme medical causes of some first degree family member and a doctor provides the relevant certification.
- (3) Civil obligations imposed by the authorities after the date of completion of pre-registration or registration.
- (4) Death of a first-degree family member.

* No refunds of the registration fee will be made for other reasons than those already mentioned above.

Cancellation policy of the Barcelona Osteopathic Congress on the part of the organization

The school Escuela de Osteopatía de Barcelona reserves the right to postpone or cancel the Barcelona Osteopathic Congress 2019 60 days in advance. In this case, the payments received for registration will be reinstated in full. No other compensation will be made (such as travel ticket amounts, accommodation or others).
